

Induction Program for First Year Electrical Engineering students by T.E. Electrical students

Induction program for first year students was conducted where few students from third year explore innovative projects made by final year students. From this program 1st students got some new innovative ideas regarding engineering projects.

