NSS Unit (SF 03)

Report on Seven Day Residential Camp of NSS

This year NSS unit of Maharshi Parshuram College of Engineering, Velneswar organized seven day (25/01/2019 to 31/01/2019) residential camp at the village Hedvi. It is a small village with a population around 2000 located in Konkan belt of Maharashtra in Ratnagiri district and nearly 20kilometers from Guhagar. A Village with the most area covered by forest, enough sources of underground water like wells & borewells.

This year 42 student volunteers along with three faculty coordinators participated in this seven-day residential camp. Volunteers were divided into five groups to perform different tasks at the camp site and in the village. A 'Lakshmbai Hedavkar Highschool' was the campsite.

Every day camp schedule started at 06:30am with warm up, yoga and NSS song. After doing breakfast volunteers used to go for voluntary work in the village at 08:15am. After working for four to five hours and getting fresh participants need a lunch break and some rest. At 3:30 pm participants had to attend various brain-storming sessions on various topics by guest lecturers. After playing games for an hour, student habituated for evening prayer and an activity like group discussion or debate. After dinner, cultural programs of volunteers, students experience for the day and planning session were conducted.

During voluntary work in the morning sessions, students performed numerous activities in different regions. In these regions various activities conducted which includes; one Vanaraibandhara, beach cleaning, cleaning public places like public health care center and school areas. Volunteers also did work to made a garden in school area. During this period, students also interacted with villagers to know their problems and for awareness. One day was kept reserved for school activities where student volunteers visited school (5th to 9th standard) to interact with school children. In school, volunteers experienced daily prayer and routine with school children and conducted educational activities, awareness activities, funny & intellectual games for them, enjoyed with children and distributed some prizes for best students in class.

In the Evening lecture session, volunteer gathered knowledge on various topics from guest speakers. In this lecture series, on very first lecture Principal Dr. Avinash Chincholkar motivated students from his life experiences for higher education and to be an opportunist. On the third day, NSS Guhagar-area coordinator Mr. Yuvraj Patil discussed with volunteers on the topic 'problems in front of youth'. On one day Mr. Maurya Sadvilkar from 'Sahyadri Nisarg Mitra, Chiplun' gave information about the various projects their organization working on to save wildlife, birds and environment and encouraged students for the environmental movement. On the same day Mr. Ghorpade conducted session on 'scientific bird watching' and the importance. Moreover, he
