NSS Unit (SF 03)

Report on Seven Day Residential Camp of NSS

This year NSS unit of Maharshi Parshuram College of Engineering, Velneswar organized seven day (21/01/2018 to 27/01/2018) residential camp at the village Varveli. It is a small village with a population around 1800 located in Konkan belt of Maharashtra in Ratnagiri district and nearly eight kilometers from Guhagar. A Village with the most area covered by forest, enough sources of underground water like wells & borewells and very good cultural background.

Though this village is nearer to the taluka place, having less basic facilities like hospitals, grocery shops, etc. Even village population looks good on paper but the actual living population of the village is seen far less. The village is having two Marathi medium primary schools with better facilities but less student count (around 90 combinedly), some of the children are learning in English medium schools in nearby town.

This year 46 student volunteers along with three faculty coordinators participated in this seven-day residential camp. Volunteers were divided into five groups to perform different tasks at the camp site and in the village. A 'Mata Ramai Bhimrao Ambedkar Hall' in the village was the campsite.

Every day camp schedule started at 06:30 am with warm up, yoga and NSS song. After doing breakfast volunteers used to go for voluntary work in the village at 08:15 am. After working for four to five hours and getting fresh participants need a lunch break and some rest. At 3:30 pm participants had to attend various brain-storming sessions on various topics by guest lecturers. After playing games for an hour, student habituated for evening prayer and an activity like group discussion or debate. At the same time, a faculty coordinator along with few volunteers used to go for meeting with villagers to plan activity of next day. After dinner, cultural programs of volunteers, students experience for the day and planning session were conducted.

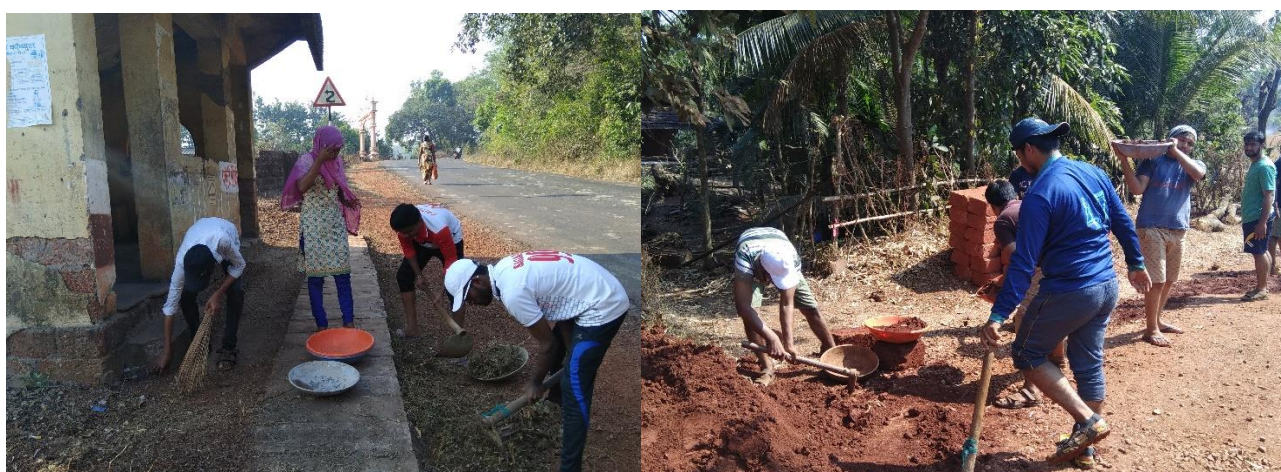

During voluntary work in the morning sessions, students performed numerous activities in different regions namely, shinde-wadi, bauddha-wadi, ranjane-wadi, lohar-wadi, teli-aali and marath-wadi. In these regions various activities conducted which includes; road repairing, cleaning public places like bus stand, temples, & connected roads. Some of the help in private area like soak pits, wastewater management was done. During this period, students also interacted with villagers to know their problems and for awareness. One day was kept reserved for school activities where student volunteers visited two primary schools (KG to VIIth standard) to interact with school children. In school, volunteers experienced daily prayer and routine with school children and conducted educational activities, awareness activities, movie screening, funny & intellectual games for them and enjoyed with children.

In the Evening lecture session, volunteer gathered knowledge on various topics from guest speakers. In this lecture series, on very first lecture Principal Dr. Avinash Chincholkar motivated students from his life experiences for higher education and to be an opportunist. On the next day Mr. Pramod Karad from ABVP, Mumbai shared his views on the topic 'what in mean by an Indian?' and also motivated students to start a business. On the third day, NSS Guhagar-area coordinator Mr. Yuvraj Patil discussed with volunteers on the topic 'social responsibility'. During this camp forest officer from Guhagar area, Mr. Vasant Jadhav also visited the camp and guided students about 'water and soil conservation'. On the same day, President of Guhagar handicap association Mr. Uday Rawnang encouraged and guided students about social work through his experience of working for physically challenged people in the area. On the last day Mr. Prasad Gond and Mr. Maurya Sadvilkar from 'Sahyadri Nisarg Mitra, Chiplun' gave information about the various projects their organization working on to save wildlife, birds and environment and encouraged students for the environmental movement.
