Report of Anti-ragging Committee of VPM's Maharshi Parshuram College of Engineering, Velneswar, Taluka Guhagar, District Ratnagiri, Maharashtra, for

Ref No. ARMA/ MH-4119

(i) Details of investigation done by anti ragging committee members

1. Thanks for your email. I once again thank this helpline for bringing the case to our knowledge.
2. After waiting for your response to know the name of candidate and waiting for the student to approach me or our Anti-ragging member(s), we started our inquiry from the students named in your email. These students live outside the college campus in rented accommodation. During the inquiry it surfaced that there is a student by the name Mr. Rahul Sawal, who lives along with them in the same premises, has slight stammering. But the students named in your email have denied their involvement in any kind of ragging.

However, they have pointed out that Mr. Rahul Sawal, who hails from Konkan region, believes that all the residents of the premises laugh at him or talk about him only.

3. After speaking to the students named in your email we tried to contact Mr. Rahul Sawal but he had gone to his native place on 25 January (working day for college) because 26 - 28 January 2018 were holidays. I personally spoke to Mr. Rahul on mobile and confirmed that he was the student, referred to as victim, in your email. He told me that his cousin living in someplace in Gujarat had lodged the complaint online even though Mr. Rahul wanted to meet the Principal first.

I told Mr. Rahul to contact the Principal on 29th January 2018 after returning from his native place. He came to my cabin and we spoke at length about what exactly had happened. Mr. Rahul gave his version. Mr. Rahul also mentioned about another student who was his batchmate during their Diploma and who was his room partner here initially. When I spoke with Mr. Rahul's this former room partner he told me that he had to leave the company of Mr. Rahul because of his suspecting nature and attitude.

4. We also spoke to Mr. Rahul's cousin, who has lodged the complaint, and tried to understand the rationale behind his action. He admitted that he should have first sent Mr. Rahul to Anti-ragging committee of college or to the Principal. This round about way of Resolving the matter could have been avoided, had Mr. Rahul Sawal approached his Head of Department directly or to the Anti-ragging committee or the Principal.

5. Any ways, we have spoken at length with Mr. Rahul Sawal, his cousin, his first roommate, and all the students named in your email. All the students are decent and have good track record. They are here for studies. Living together in hostel or in a hostel like premises has its own merits and demerits. They need to learn the art of living together by understanding each other and respecting shortcomings and good things of each other. No one is born perfect.

6. We have cautioned all the students, named in your email, to refrain from any act that could go against them. We have also advised Mr. Rahul Sawal to mix with others and enjoy this life. And we have told Mr. Rahul to come directly to me at the slightest feeling of ragging by anybody.

As such, as far as the college is concerned, the matter has been given due importance and views of all concerned students have been heard and they have been counselled appropriately. We do not think there is any more action needed at this stage. Therefore, the case is closed from our end.

It would be proper and prudent to advise anybody who lodges a 'complaint' on your helpline to first approach the Anti-ragging committee of college or the Principal of the college before approaching a third party. Because, otherwise, the very purpose of having an Anti-ragging committee or a Principal in an institute is defeated.

We thank you for your cooperation.

(ii) Conclusions of the investigations

- a) The complainant ('helpline' did not reveal the name but we identified him to be Mr. Rahul Sawal) resides outside the college premises and hostel, along with about 15 – 20 others in rented accommodation with canteen facility. He suffers from slight stammering. He thinks that the students talk about him and if they are laughing then they are laughing at him.
- b) Even though the students named in the complaint (received through 'helpline') have denied their involvement, the Principal and Anti-ragging committee have warned them and advised them to be careful in future. If they are found to be troubling the complainant in any manner then strict action would be taken.
- c) The complainant has been advised to mix with his batchmates of the hostel where he resides (outside the college campus). He has also been advised to first approach his Head of Department (Mechanical Engg) or any member of Anti-ragging Committee of College or directly the Principal in future if there is any attempt by anyone to harass him or to trouble him in any manner.

d) The Head of Mechanical Engineering Department has been instructed by Principal to keep in regular touch with Mr. Rahul Sawal and to make sure that he continues to feel comfortable and at home.

e) Mr. Rahul Sawal has been attending classes like a normal student and is fine.

(iii) List of the anti ragging committee members along with their signatures, position of the members in Anti Ragging Committee. ( i.e., chairman, convenor or member etc.) and their contact details (Active Mobile Number and email address).

To

Ms. Shraddha Dipak Dalvi
Student of SE (Civil)

This is with reference to a complaint from your classmate that cash of about Rs.600 was missing from his valet after the last examination on 19 December 2017 of previous semester. While going for the examination in the afternoon slot on 19 December 2017 he had kept his valet in his bag which was left on first floor of Bhaskaracharya building of MPCOE.

An inquiry was conducted by a team of our faculty members and CCTV footages were checked. You were found to be opening the bag, carrying it to nearby washroom, and then replacing it. Your actions and movements were suspect. But since you were not available for inquiry we waited till 12 February 2018. Even though the college has officially started on 8th January 2018 and your classes of current semester started from 15 January 2018, you reported to college nearly a month later. We called up you and your parents a couple of times for inquiry but we did not get satisfactory response.

When the inquiry committee questioned you about the whole incident on 12 February 2018, you admitted to having opened the said student's bag and removing the valet. Even though you have denied removing the cash, the fact remains that the cash was missing and nobody else had touched the bag after you replaced it. Money is still missing as far as the student is concerned.

On the basis of your admission of opening the student's bag, we consider it a serious matter and we believe that if we do not take appropriate action then the credibility of institute will be at stake.

Considering all the above facts of the case, the motive, and your admission of the theft, you are suspended from college for a period of 4 days from 5th March to 8th March (both days inclusive). You will not be able to attend lectures and laboratory sessions on these days. Note that we have delayed the suspension to enable you to write your Internal Unit Test – I which was conducted during 27 Feb. to 1 March 2018.

Please note that if you fail to satisfy the minimum attendance norm of University of Mumbai in the current semester due to late reporting and suspension, and are detained, then you will be solely responsible for it.

Dear Shri Mrunmay Mulye,

This office had responded to your mail dated 14.03.2016 and again to your response dated 17.03.2016.

I had requested you to meet Principal of the College. You did not meet the Principal.

You had made some serious allegations against the Principal, which you again repeated in the posting on MPCOE's Facebook (15 March 2016). On your second posting on Facebook you have made some serious allegations that college is extorting money from students. You have distorted and misinformed the students, and requested students not to take admission, which has caused irreparable damage to the Institution.

So you are requested to substantiate your -

1. Allegations against Principal
2. College is extorting money from students
3. Names of the students supporting your allegation of extortion.

Your postings are available for prospective students to take a conscious decision. Your allegations are extremely serious and we have taken them seriously.

You are requested to submit your response in writing to this office within one week of the receipt of this letter.

You are requested to collect the hard copy of this letter from Shri Mane, Co-ordinator of the first year.

Good Evening sir,
My self Mrunmay Madhav Mulye S.E. Civil Engineering Roll no. V427 from VPM's MAHARSHI PARSHURAM COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING.
I am from middle class family I am completing my higher education i.e ENGINEERING by taking a bank loan. From last 3 months the college had make a rule of compulsory wearing formal shoes. The intention of making this rule was to feel like we are doing engineering and hence to be in formals. I immediately bought a new branded shoes as I was impressed by the college intention towards making this rule. But unfortunately during performing our concrete technology practical my shoes was spoiled as it was of pure leather. And now I am not having much money to afford a new one. I tried to tell my this problem to our respected PRINCIPAL but she told me that it is not a big issue and you should come to the college only by wearing formal shoes and if not you will not be allowed into the college.
It is my humble request to you to please give me some appropriate solution on this.
Thank you sir.

Dear Mrunmay Mulye,

I am sure this mail will find you in good health.

Kindly note that :

1. Dress code is informed to every student at the time of admission and an undertaking is given by every student that he will adhere to this.
2. You also appreciated the intentions of the college and purchased the shoes. I wonder why you did not adhere to this obligatory condition accepted by you at the time of admission for so long? Ignorance gives no immunity under any law.
3. Kindly note that this expectation is not recent as stated by you. Many students were found not adhering to dress code and faculties started reminding students. I am happy that most of the students adhere to the dress code now. You are requested to adhere to dress code without further delay.
4. I am requesting Principal to contact your parents to assist you in the matter.
5. The management and faculties are making all possible efforts to give you the best education. Many innovative programmes are conducted in the campus to enrich your academic inputs and also to make you a responsible Citizen. We are extremely unhappy and disturbed with your attitude. It is very difficult to make any qualitative or quantitative changes in the system with such mindset.

You are requested to see the Principal on receipt of this mail.

With good luck and warm regards to you.

Good afternoon sir,

Firstly I would like to clear you that during time of admission only my parents told my problem regarding wearing shoes to Principal Madam and that time Madam told me and my parents that it's fine with formal sandals. Then to last 3 months ago I had bought a pure leather formal shoes to follow the college rule and that was been damaged while performing practical of CONCRETE TECHNOLOGY in college. And if the formal shoes is compulsory it would have been mentioned in the fee structure itself so that students can claim money for this rule from bank loan. And now I am not having that much amount to buy new set of shoes what should I do? You only give me some appropriate solution so that I will follow it

Thank you.

The previous mail was only regarding my problem. I would also like to tell to that while making any kind of rule the college should think for the causes. The college had made the rule of wearing formal shoes but is there any cobbler in the nearby area of college if their is any small damage to the shoes the students have to travel for atleast 20kms. I don't say that their should not be any rule but their must be some logic behind every rule. Maximum students of our college belongs to the poor family while making rule this fact must be taken into the consideration.

Nextly I would also like to tell you that the college is not able to fulfil our basic requirements. During admission DESAI sir told us about wifi service today when we are in need of taking some data from Dspace we are unable to do so because the maximum computers in the library are not in good conditions. Their is not even good food service in college canteen and the service which is provided is too costly (i.e. 1 vadapav=10rs, 1 vada = 10rs and the size is also too small. & also one piece of bhajji=5rs). During time of Gathering students collected 100rs per head for mandap although the students have paid the academic fees of the year which includes the fund for gathering. Their is not even appropriate parking facility in college. Also about laboratories today the concrete mixer which is an important equipment for mixing a concrete is not in good condition and students have to mix the concrete with the help of shovel which is a big reason of damaging shoes. I know you will get angry on me after reading this mail. I am sorry for that.

Thank you.

Dear Master Mrunmay

I have received your both mails and I have noted all the contents. I only can bring to your notice that they have no direct or indirect connection with the dress code. I also feel that we have made a blunder of starting the Engineering College, where there is no cobbler in the vicinity of 20 kilometers. I request you to meet principal in this regard and adhere to the dress code.

Mrunmay Madhav Mulye My self Mrunmay Madhav Mulye S.E civil engineering roll no.V427. I am having problem of a rule of compulsory wearing a formal shoes. I had obeyed this rule but my new shoes was been damaged while performing the concrete technology practical and now I don't have that much amount to buy a new set of shoes and wearing formal will not make us a formal man it will only be done by having a formal mind. And engineers are not a formal one he is some one who is extra ordinary. Secondly during time of admission I had told my problem regarding wearing shoes as it affects my skin and that time PRINCIPAL Madam told me that the formal dress is compulsory not the shoes and hence I took admission over here and now they are changing their sentences. Frankly I am feedup of this college and its strictness. Thank you.

Dear Smt Shweta Kamble

Your postings on VPM's MPCOE Confession page has been brought to the notice of this office (Annexure I).

You have suggested that prospective students desirous of taking admission to this college should be prevented, so that College will suffer. This according to you is a way to teach a lesson to the college management.

We do expect that every student while in the campus should adhere to a civilized behavior, punctual to academic and other programs and follow the dress code. You are informed of these expectations at the time of admission and you have consented to it by signing an affidavit.

Through your comments you have misinformed the community. It is highly offensive and amounts to misconduct. We have taken a serious note of these postings of yours.

Ek Dadaa ka nua BE student

Can i suggest exactly wht problem is here,
BE students says, " Are yaar ekade kitipn doka aapta ky upyog nay, aamhi sarv try kela pn result zero, Bhai kuch nhi ho sakta es clgka"

Some TE n SE students says," BEwale baghtil re, aapla ky jato, aapan ni aapla kam bara ky samazlav, i'm not interested in that faltu politics"

FE log says, " Dadalokanna nay jamla tar aapan ky cheez, aapan aahotch kiti aadhi"

. . . Overall our mindsets r with full of negativity, somebody standing for ur points then u says, " saala
shining martoy, ha kashala boltoy re ha kontya committeet ahe". . . Bullshit legpulling starts

Bhailog wake up, abhibhi time gaya nhi he, Mumbai-pune ke jane do aaspas kehi clg visit karke compare karke dekho ekbaar, wht water cooler (with purifier),
Tv, canteen n other basic facilities r provided by them, Wht amount they funded for such technical n cultural events (without begging students),

Wht they sponsored for there sports players, Wht kind of restrictions n bc ethics and etiquettes they make compulsory for students (dress code, shoes. . .

Saala aisa lagta he ki bas ek rumal pinse shirt pe laga diya to full balwadi student jaisa feel karunga)

Wht type of timetable they design? How many number of pakau guest lectures they r organised? How much they serious abt syllabus completion? How much they care/deal with good teaching staff? How much they give importance to dikhawa more than quality? . . . Bla.

Sub: Damage to hostel property noticed on 19th May, 2015

Dear Students,

It was hurting to observe to damage to the electrical switches on third floor of Dyneshwari-4 and first floor Dyneshwari-1. With your cooperation we conducted enquiry and also contacted your parents to seek support.

Finely, Two culprit students who damage this hostel property were traced and they came forward with confessing their did. They have also given written acceptance of damaging the hostel property.

VPMMPCOE management is very serious to note and will give due punishment/appropriate fine towards the involved students.

However, as the exams are ongoing we have not forced them to vacant the room with immediate effect. We appreciate your stand and the helping us to solve this hard situation.

Sincere thanks and regards.
